

Crystal Palace Christmas Light Switch-on 28 November 2024

Address	Westow House, 79 Westow Hill Crystal Palace SE19 1TX
Reason for performance	Crystal Palace traders will be switching on the Christmas Lights for the town in a ceremony held at Westow House. There will be a brass band playing outside the pub and then we'll be singing inside the pub for around 30 mins.
Audience	Public (plus friends and family if you invite them!)
Venue	We'll be singing inside Westow House. We will be on the ground floor in the main bar space (which is to the right of the front door as you are facing the pub). We will have our backs to the glass windows, which are in front of the outdoor space, facing the bar.
Attendees	Current numbers 18 attending Sopranos x 11 Altos x 7
Dress code	We'll be inside to perform so as Christmas-y as you are willing to go!

A final note about subs

For anyone who has paid by subscription we will be offering you a refund - please get in touch if you would like to receive this. Similarly, for PAYG members, it will not be obligatory to pay. However, we still need to cover hall hire, as this is paid in advance, as well as Elena's time and other running costs, so if you are happy to contribute your usual fee towards this it would be very much appreciated.
